Since January 1996

Twas the holidays of the season
 On a hushed December night
 I set about to craft this message
 By electric candlelight

My stockings were hanging
 In the air by thin wire
 I don't have a fireplace
 Just a broken clothes dryer! ¹

(¹ Not quite though almost – I'm looking forward to my new set installed soon.)

My thoughts were a-drifting
 To holiday tops spinning 'round
 To feasts and treats
 And snow on the ground ²

(² Unfortunately not likely in South Florida.)

Of all the subject ideas
 Dancing in my head
 I thought up a whimsical holiday message
 For my December newsletter instead

What I am thankful for
 Throughout the entire year
 Is everyone who lends me
 An occasional ear

Just a few moments of your time
 In each of months gone by
 Thanks to my newsletter readers
 Who give me an attentive eye

The insights and experiences
 I write what I know
 The wisdom and expertise
 Is what I want to show

To those on my list
 And everyone to whom I link
 I really appreciate your attention
 When I post monthly what I think

Software and supply chain
 Are two of my topics
 As are ethics and governance
 In short supply in the tropics!

The holiday season is hectic
 And time is in short supply
 Thanks for this final moment together
 As we wish 2011 goodbye

The year's end is upon us
 And my final message is clear
 "Have a happy and healthy holiday season,
 And best wishes for next year."
