Cynthia Cabrera

Cynthia Cabrera founded Global Solutions & Services, Inc. in 2002 to help companies in need of logistics planning, process improvement and compliance. Using Lean Principles to identify and eliminate waste and repetition, Cynthia uses operational analysis and key performance metrics to ensure strategic and operational improvements meet and exceed long term company goals.

In 2004, Global Solutions & Services, Inc. began offering educational training seminars as well. Initially focusing on ½ day workshops, Global Solutions and Services, Inc. has expanded to offer tailored training programs for Fortune 1000 companies as well as not for profit organizations.

As a consultant under the auspices of the South Florida Manufacturers Association (SFMA) Ms. Cabrera has worked with manufacturing firms staying competitive through strategic planning and education. As an instructor / presenter for the Southern United States Trade Association (SUSTA) and Miami Dade College's "Export Readiness Program", Ms. Cabrera meets with select companies to train them on international freight basics, strategic planning, compliance, and policy issues.

Ms. Cabrera is also an advisor with Maritime Transportation & Logistics Advisors, LLC; a consultancy which has assisted U.S. government agencies, port authorities and private sector clients with port management and operations studies, transportation logistics, government and industry relations, transportation business opportunities, trucking and rail operations, short sea shipping feasibility studies, financial modeling and carrier freight route development.

Ms. Cabrera travels extensively to speak on the subject of logistics, supply chain management, and international trade; is active in her community and serves on the board of several not for profit organizations.
